

PAIN MEDICINE

The Fellowship Training Program for Pain Management teaches fellows the principles and practice of acute, chronic and cancer pain management. During the two-year training period, fellows have rotations in acute pain management/regional anesthesia and chronic pain management. The rotation in acute pain management zeroes in on the management of acute pain and associated with surgical procedures. This rotation also includes experience in regional anesthesia.

FAST FACTS:

1. Average number of Fellows per year: 5
2. Training Committee:
Department Head - Dr. Francis O. Javier
Training Officer - Dr. Merlina L. Cabrera
3. Sub-specialty Training:
Adult and Pediatric Pain Management and Palliative Care
4. Outside Rotations:

Specialty	Duration	Location
Adult Pain Management	1 month	Singapore General Hospital – Palliative and Hospice Center
	1 month	Memorial Sloan Kettering Center
Pediatric Pain Management	6 months	Johns Hopkins Medical Center
	6 months	Seattle, Washington

For more inquiries, please call the Department at (632) 723-0101 ext. 5416 .
For application concerns, please call the Medical Education Office at (632) 723-0101 ext. 4300