

St. Luke's
Medical Center
One of the world's best

RESIDENCY TRAINING PROGRAM

RADIOLOGY

The Residency Training Program accepts 29 residents. Subspecialties offered are for breast imaging, CT-MRI, ultrasound, pediatric radiology, and interventional radiology.

FAST FACTS

1. Average number of Residents in training: 7
2. Passing rate to the specialty board for the past three years: 94%
3. Training Committee:
Residency Training Officer - Annie A. Rosario, M.D.
4. Clinical/Specialty Rotations:

Diagnostic Imaging Section	Breast Center
Ultrasound Section	Interventional Radiology
Computed Tomography Section	PET/CT Imaging Section
Magnetic Resonance Imaging Section
5. Outside Rotations:
Philippine Heart Center
Philippine Orthopedic Center

For more inquiries, please call the Department at (632) 723-0101 ext. 5417 .
For application concerns, please call the Medical Education Office at (632) 723-0101 ext. 4300