

RESIDENCY TRAINING PROGRAM

EMERGENCY MEDICINE

The Emergency Care Service (ECS) currently offers a four-year residency program with the primary objective of preparing physicians for the clinical practice of emergency medicine. To accomplish this objective, the program provides both experiential and didactic training and concurrently inculcates a set of behaviors that value lifelong learning, professional decorum, patient advocacy and critical thinking.

FAST FACTS:

1. Average number of residents per year: 3

2. Start of the program: January

3. Training Committee:

Adult ER Section Head:	Reynante C. Mirano, MD, FPCEM
Resident Training Officer:	Romulo B. Babasa III, MD, FPCEM
Training Committee Members:	Allan C. Campo, MD, FPCEM
	Fay Catherine K. Gloria, MD, FPCEM
	Paolo Antonio S. Luna, MD, FPCEM
	Arnel M. Tolosa, MD, FPCEM

Technical Research Committee:	Faith Mesa-Gaerlan, MD, FPCEM (Head)
	Peter F. Quilala, MD, FPCEM
	Elynn L. Go, MD, DPPS

4. Outside Rotations

Baguio General Hospital – One Month Trauma
East Avenue Medical Center – One Month Toxicology

For more inquiries, please call the Medical Education Office at (632) 723-0101 ext. 4300